The Congress of Dësh (Committee for the Salvation of Albania)
6. When the Nationalists clearly realized that the communist danger was imminent and threatened civil war, the Balli Kombetar - the largest nationalist group in Albania - called a meeting at Kukës (near Tirana) in June 1943, inviting the Communist Party members and the representatives of the NCL as well. The Albanian Communist Party was represented by Mustafa GJINISHU, Omer DEDAJI, and Myrlin PAVAI. Shemushat Mufti, Mufti, NACACI, Sabri KURRI and others attended as members of the NCL. The Balli Kombetar representatives were Miftat HALLAJI, Husein KUCA, Vasil KAMO, Shander HUNO, Thoma OCHIOLI, Rovica, Rovica and other members of the Executive Committee of the Balli Kombetar. The Congress was a great success. The parties agreed on a platform, and invited a "Committee for Salvation of Albania." The platform of the Congress, signed also by the Albanian Communist Party, consisted of the following principles: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. joint fighting front against the invaders; b. plebiscite on the spirit of the Atlantic Charter to decide the fate of the Kosovo and Macedonia regions; c. free elections and representative government; d. no party impose by force its ideology on the others.
